The White Stone

1. The White Stone is the Divine Nature; it is God Himself. TM 243.
2. The essential property of the White Stone is to assimilate all things with God himself. TM 243.
3. Its essential property, in Scripture terms, is to reconcile all things to Himself, whether they be in Heaven or in Earth. TM 243; Col. 2:20; Eph. 2:16.

And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things unto himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven. Col 1:20.

4. Is God's "Divine Elixir." TM 243.
5. It has a transforming power and efficacy. TM 243.
6. Nothing is able to withstand the Divine Power of the White Stone. TM 243.
7. The White Stone is the "Divine Stillness;" whereby the believer is established in a most exquisite grace. CR, on Rev. 2:16-17.
8. It has all-tincturing Power. EW 2:10.
9. The Bride of the New Jerusalem is to be joined to the White Stone. EW 2:9b.
10. The exact phrase "White Stone" is mentioned only once in Scripture, KJV:

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith unto the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and in the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth saving he that receiveth it. Rev. 2:17.

11. The White Stone is clearly received sometime after conversion—for it is promised to the Overcomers in the Church of Pergamos. Rev. 2:17.
12. Only the believer, who has received the White Stone, and the Hidden Manna, can possibly know what the New Name is. Rev. 2:17.
13. The Christian is admonished to purge out the leaven, and to pursue his course in soundness and purity. It is only upon overcoming that he will receive this precious Stone. Rev. 2:17.

14. And as this New Name is a secret, therefore it is meant to be kept as a secret, and not shared with the world, or even other Christians.

And the angel of the LORD said unto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, seeing it is secret? Jdg 13:18.

The secret of the LORD is with them that fear him; and he will shew them his covenant. Psa. 25:14.

For the froward is abomination to the Lord: but his secret is with the righteous. Pro. 3:32.

15. Three distinctly different Things are promised to the Overcomer in Rev. 2:17: 1) The Hidden Manna, 2) The White Stone, 3) The New Name. It is suggested they while they are indeed different, yet the three have something to do with one another. Therefore, in considering this White Stone, a separate study of the Hidden Manna and the New Name is also warranted.
16. The New Name cannot be given or received without having first received the White Stone. Thus we see a connection between the White Stone and the New Name. Rev. 2:17.
17. And as there is a connection between the White Stone and the New Name, so there is also a connection between these two and the Hidden Manna. Rev. 2:17.
18. Is received by those who have already “been made to drink of the Lamb’s dying name.” 2F, 8/21/1677, The Water-Stone.
19. The White Stone is Christ’s righteous nature that must be inwardly born, living and manifesting itself in us, as it did in Him. LL 3:14.
20. By this White Stone are we able to overcome, even as Christ overcame. LL 3:14.
21. The White Stone is the New Name, the New Nature and Spirit of Christ, become all and all in us, and so only to be known by those who have it brought to live in them. LL 3:14.
22. The Name engraved on the White Stone is Alpha and Omega. 2F, 8/22/1677.
23. The Title engraved on the White Stone is The Lord Our Righteousness. 3M 14.
24. In the glorious restitution, which is designed by the Alpha and Omega, He will bring forth Himself in his Bridal Church; that shall be all comely without spot or blemish, as the White Stone. 3M 14.
25. The White Stone is given to eat by those who have previously been made to drink into the Lord’s dying Name. 2F, 8/22/1677.
26. We are to eat the White Stone, we are to eat the Hidden Manna; however, we are to drink the New Name. LA 1:7, 9. 2F, 8/22/1677, The Water Stone.
27. The New Name is inside the White Stone. Rev. 2:17.
28. This sweet Name will change the anger into Love. MM 23:6.
29. The shape of the White Stone is square. 2F, 8/22/1677.

30. The letters engraved upon it are of gold. 2F, 8/22/1677.
31. The White Stone can only be eaten and received by those who have first passed through Christ's suffering, dying, and bleeding Name, that has cleansed from Sin. 2F, 8/21/1677.
32. The First Adam's name must be obliterated before we can be capable of the New Name of the White Stone. 2F, 8/21/1677.
33. The New Name (engraved on the White Stone) is actually the Lord Christ's ancient name, the Alpha and Omega; that is to be recovered by Him. 2F, 8/21/1677.
34. The White Stone projects healing and purifying, running through every intellectual part. 2F, 8/22/1677.
35. It is called the "White-Salt-Stone" that we are to feed upon, which will keep from the Serpent's Venom. 3F, 8/14/1678.
36. Prior to receiving this White-Salt-Stone, it can be said we are in a salt-less-state; which would agree with that saying of Jesus, that we have lost our salt-flavor or saltiness; and therefore it is the White-Salt-Stone that brings the salt-flavor or seasoning back to us.

And every oblation of thy meat offering shalt thou season with salt; neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the covenant of thy God to be lacking from thy meat offering: with all thine offerings thou shalt offer salt. Lev 2:13.

All the heave offerings of the holy things, which the children of Israel offer unto the LORD, have I given thee, and thy sons and thy daughters with thee, by a statute for ever: it is a covenant of salt for ever before the LORD unto thee and to thy seed with thee. Num 18:19.

Can that which is unsavoury be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg? Job 6:6.

And thou shalt offer them before the LORD, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering unto the LORD. Eze 43:24.

Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men. Mat 5:13.

For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt. Mar 9:49.

Salt is good: but if the salt have lost his saltness, wherewith will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another. Mar 9:50.

Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man. Col 4:6

61. The White Stone, like the New Song, and the New Name, is distinguishable by sensation. 1F A:11.

62. The White Stone is mentioned by E. Underhill in her Introduction to The Confessions of Jacob Boehme:

He was fed from many sources; But all that he received was fused and remade in the furnace of his own inner life. The result was a new creation, as unique as the White Stone which the alchemist made from his mercury, sulphur, and salt; but we do it no honor by ignoring the elements from which it sprang. (CJB I:11)

63. This Stone is also called Wisdom's Tincturing White Stone. 1FOG 2:29.

72. A four-square White Stone is mentioned in 3F, 6/7/1686.

Then was there presented to me a four-square stone, all white and clear, and at each corner a pillar with an engraven name upon each pillar. Upon the stone was written, Foundation-strength shall bear up these pillars. 3F-2, 6/7/1678.

74. The Lord Jesus Christ is a Living Stone:

To whom coming, as unto a Living Stone, disallowed indeed of men [as the Chief Cornerstone], but chosen of God, and precious. 1Pet. 2:4.

75. We, too, are to become Living Stones:

Ye also, as lively stones, are built up a spiritual house, an Holy Priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ. (1Pet. 2:5)

76. [The Incarnation of Christ] is the Rock in the Wilderness; the Stone of Fire in Ezekiel; the Stone with Seven Eyes in Zechariah; the White Stone with the New Name in the Revelation; This is the Salt which we ought to have in ourselves; this is the Water and Spirit whereof we must be born again. TU, Preface.

77. How may the Heavenly Man be distinguished from all pretended Christians, seeing there is given him a White Stone and a New Name which none can read, but he that has it? And how obscure the characters engraved in that White Stone are, may appear in this: that when the Lord said to the Twelve, One of you shall betray me, they all severally asked, Master, is it I? So that he only who had not the White Stone was able to know who it was, and by consequence who were not traitors, but faithful. And yet notwithstanding all that has been said, the right Christian may be known partly by comparing him with the contrary characters of the Titular Christian, and partly by something visible in him, who is the Christian in heart. TU, Q:160.
